

Cynthia (Cindy) Silva
Moment of Silence

Let us pause to honor the life of Cynthia Silva, a cherished member of our community and a dedicated educator. Cindy passed away peacefully on November 28th, surrounded by her family. Born on August 27, 1952, in Plymouth, Cindy was a graduate of Plymouth-Carver High School and earned her Master's in Education from Salem State College.

Cindy's commitment to education spanned nearly four decades, during which she positively impacted the lives of countless students, families, and colleagues. She served as Principal at Nathaniel Morton School and West School, leaving a lasting mark on the Plymouth school system. After retiring in 2013, her influence and dedication to education continued to be felt throughout the community.

As we take this moment of silence, let us remember Cindy's unwavering passion for learning, her kindness, and the profound impact she had on all those fortunate enough to know her. Her legacy will live on in the hearts of all who were touched by her work.
