COMMENTS:

In the spring, our students will be reading F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby, a novel that takes place during the 1920s. We would like to take our three CII classes to visit the Newport Mansions as part of our curriculum focused on The Great Gatsby. This experiential field trip aims to provide students with a tangible connection to the era depicted in the novel, allowing them to visualize the opulence and societal dynamics of the Roaring Twenties. The two mansions that we will visit are representative of the "types" of wealth portrayed in the novel - "new money" vs. "old money." By exploring the grandeur of the Newport Mansions, students will gain insight into the extravagant lifestyles that shaped the narrative. This immersive experience not only enhances their understanding of the novel but also deepens their appreciation for the historical and cultural context in which it is set.
